Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 17, 2022, Freedom Holding Corp. (the “Company”) entered into an agreement with Maxim Povalishin for the sale of 100% of the share capital of its Russian subsidiary, Investment Company Freedom Finance LLC (“Freedom RU”), together with Freedom RU’s subsidiary FFIN Bank LLC (such companies together the “Russian Subsidiaries”). Maxim Povalishin, the purchaser, is currently the Deputy General Director and a member of the Board of Directors of Freedom RU. The transaction is subject to the approval of the Central Bank of the Russian Federation and is expected to close in the coming months.

The consideration for the purchase of the Russian Subsidiaries consists of the following:

- Mr. Povalishin will be assigned the Company’s obligation to Freedom RU under an outstanding deferred payment in the amount of approximately RUB 6.6 billion (currently approximately US$107 million) (the “Deferred Payment Obligation”) which resulted from the purchase by the Company of 90.43% of the share capital of Freedom RU’s Kazakhstan subsidiary Freedom Finance JSC (“Freedom KZ”) (with its subsidiaries) from Freedom RU as part of a corporate restructuring, as a result of which the Company will become the 100% direct owner of Freedom KZ. The agreement for the purchase of Freedom KZ was entered into on September 13, 2022. Completion of such transaction is subject to regulatory approvals and is expected to occur prior to the closing of the sale of the Russian Subsidiaries; and
- Mr. Povalishin will pay cash in an amount equal to (x) US$140 million less (y) the amount of the Deferred Payment Obligation as translated into U.S. dollars at the official exchange rate on the closing date.

Mr. Povalishin has informed the Company that he will use his personal funds, including from sales of stock he was granted while an executive at Freedom RU, to finance the cash component of the purchase price.

The Board and management of the Company have concluded that the interests of the Company’s stakeholders are best served by pursuing a sale of its Russian subsidiaries, which will enable the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Freedom Group”) to accelerate their growth in non-Russian markets. The Board has approved the transaction.

The purchase and sale agreement provides that the Russian Subsidiaries will be rebranded, including changing their names and logos. The parties expect that, following the completion of the sale of the Russian Subsidiaries, a number of existing clients of the Russian Subsidiaries will invest in the non-Russian international capital markets going forward through accounts at other Freedom Group companies, subject to appropriate on-boarding for compliance purposes.

The Company plans to file the purchase and sale agreement as an exhibit to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended on September 30, 2022, and intends to seek confidential treatment for the purchase and sale agreement. The foregoing description of the purchase and sale agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the purchase and sale agreement when filed.

Freedom Holding Corp. Enters into Agreement to Sell Russian Businesses

Sale to Maxim Povalishin Subject to Central Bank Approval

ALMATY, KAZAKHSTAN (October 19, 2022) - Freedom Holding Corp. (Nasdaq: FRHC) (the “Company”) today announced that it has entered into an agreement to sell its Russian subsidiary, Investment Company Freedom Finance LLC (“Freedom RU”), together with Freedom RU’s subsidiary FFIN Bank LLC (such companies together the “Russian Subsidiaries”). The transaction is subject to the approval of the Central Bank of the Russian Federation and is expected to close in the coming months.

The Russian Subsidiaries are the Company’s only subsidiaries in Russia. The Russian Subsidiaries are being acquired by Maxim Povalishin, who is currently the Deputy General Director and a member of the Board of Directors of Freedom RU. As consideration for the purchase of the Russian Subsidiaries, Mr. Povalishin will (1) pay cash in an amount of approximately US$33 million (subject to adjustment based on the Russian ruble-U.S. dollar exchange rate on the closing date) and (2) be assigned the Company’s obligation to Freedom RU under an outstanding deferred payment in the amount of approximately RUB 6.6 billion (currently approximately US$107 million) which resulted from the purchase by the Company of Freedom RU’s Kazakhstan subsidiary Freedom Finance JSC (“Freedom KZ”) (with its subsidiaries) from Freedom RU as part of a corporate restructuring. Completion of the purchase of Freedom KZ is subject to regulatory approvals and is expected to occur prior to the closing of the sale of the Russian Subsidiaries.

Mr. Povalishin has informed the Company that he will use his personal funds, including from sales of stock he was granted while an executive at Freedom RU, to finance the cash component of the purchase price.

The parties expect that, following the completion of the sale of the Russian Subsidiaries, a number of existing clients of the Russian Subsidiaries will invest in the non-Russian international capital markets going forward through accounts at other subsidiaries of the Company, subject to appropriate on-boarding for compliance purposes.

“This is an excellent transaction for both organizations,” said Timur Turlov, chief executive officer of Freedom Holding. “We are focused on our growth in Kazakhstan, other areas of Europe and the United States, the latter through our New York Stock Exchange member firm, Prime Executions. Consumers in Europe are gravitating to our platform, and this transaction will allow us to focus on that growth.”

“We regret that the challenging geopolitical circumstances have made it necessary for us to sell our Russian subsidiaries,” Mr. Turlov added. “Our Board and management undertook a rigorous process and believe this is the best possible result for shareholders in these difficult circumstances. The sale of our Russian subsidiaries will enable us to accelerate growth in other markets.”

“We look forward to further developing these businesses in Russia,” said Mr. Povalishin. “The foundation is strong, and we plan to develop our own ecosystem and offer comprehensive services.”
