Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 27, 2023, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Freedom Holding Corp. (the "Company") approved a strategic plan to expand the Company's business by entering the telecommunications market in Kazakhstan. Pursuant to the new strategic plan, the Company intends to build the foundation for a broader "ecosystem" offering in Kazakhstan, which will enable the Company to benefit from synergies among is core financial services operations and its new telecommunications offerings.

Pursuant to the newly adopted strategic plan, the Company will establish a new independent telecommunications operator in Kazakhstan to provide high-quality mobile communication, broadband internet access, Wi-Fi and digital services to customers. The new business will be operated by Freedom Telecom Holding Limited ("Freedom Telecom"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company incorporated under the laws of the Astana International Financial Center. An experienced core management team has been appointed to Freedom Telecom, and a broader team of specialists with experience in creating successful technology projects in Kazakhstan is currently being assembled.

The Company's Chairman and CEO, Timur Turlov, served as a member of the board of directors of Kcell, one of the leading providers of mobile telecommunications services in Kazakhstan, from 2019 until October 2023. Based on Mr. Turlov's experience and knowledge of the market, he and the other members of the Board believe that there is currently an attractive opportunity for a new entrant in the Kazakhstan telecommunications market and that the formation of an ecosystem offering combining financial services and telecoms in Kazakhstan, if successfully implemented, will create significant synergies for the Company and significant growth in the Company's customer base.

Execution of the new strategic plan is expected to require significant capital investment. Total capital expenditures in connection with Freedom Telecom over the next five years are projected to be approximately $650 million for, among other things, the acquisition of a 5G band license, construction of a backbone network, establishment of a data center and acquisitions of smaller companies in the sector. The Company currently plans to finance these expenditures with a combination of domestic bond financing in Kazakhstan and vendor financing.

Freedom Telecom is expected to be loss-making in each of 2024, 2025 and 2026 and to become profitable starting in 2027, based on assumptions included in the Company's financial model. While such losses, and increased debt service costs associated with funding the implementation of the strategic plan, will have an adverse effect on the Company's consolidated net income in the relevant periods, the financial model provides that the successful execution of the new strategic plan will begin to have a significant positive impact on the Company's consolidated net income starting in 2028.

The Board and management of the Company have concluded that the interests of the Company's stakeholders are best served by pursuing the new strategic plan, which will enable the Company and its subsidiaries to expand their business consistent with the Company's general growth strategy.
